

To Whom It May Concern,

Constructor University is honored to serve as the host institution for International Conference on Education, Technology and Online Learning (ICETOL) 2026 and to provide the academic, organizational, and logistical support required for the successful delivery of the conference. The conference will take place on the Constructor University campus in Bremen, Germany, from the 17-20th of August 2026.

ICETOL 2026 will feature discussions, best practices, reflections, and shared experiences aligned with the conference theme, contributing to both national and international academic literature. In line with its commitment to inclusivity and international participation, ICETOL 2026 will accept presentations in four languages: English, Turkish, German, and Spanish.

The conference is supported by a distinguished group of international partner institutions, including Anadolu University, Balıkesir University, The Open University (United Kingdom), The Ohio State University, AKAD University, FHM Online-University, Universidad de Burgos, the University of South Africa, and EDTECH-U.

As host, Constructor University will collaborate closely with the ICETOL Organizing Committee to support the conference program, venue arrangements, and overall participant experience, in line with the university's commitment to academic excellence, innovation, and international collaboration.

Should you require any additional information or formal documentation, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

Oznur Bell
